An ordinance amending Section 16 of Ordinance No. 1-12.19 (Income Tax Ordinance) of the Village of Hartville to provide for credit for income taxes paid by residents to other municipalities.

SECTION 1: That Section 16 of Ordinance 1-12.19 (Income Tax Ordinance of the Village of Hartville) which reads as follows:

“Section 16. Credit for Tax Paid to Another Municipality. Except as otherwise required by Ohio Revised Code Section 718.021 and 718.121, no credits shall be allowed to offset any income tax to which the Village is otherwise entitled under this Ordinance.”

Be amended to read as follows:

“Section 16. Credit for Tax Paid to Another Municipality. Any person who resides or is domiciled in the Village, but who receives net profits, salary, qualifying wages, commissions, other compensation or other income for work done, services performed, or business transacted outside of the Village, which is taxable under the ordinance, upon production of satisfactory evidence that he has paid income tax on such net profits, salary, qualifying wages, commissions or other compensation or other income to another municipality of this State shall be entitled to adjust the tax herein imposed by deducting therefrom the net tax which has been paid by said person on such net profits, salary qualifying wages, commissions, other compensation or other income, provided, however, that the amount so deducted shall be limited to the amount of tax the said person would have paid to the Village pursuant to this ordinance on that portion of such net profits, salary, qualifying wages, commissions, other compensation or other income which has been taxed by another municipality. No adjustment may be made for any such income, the source of which when determined in accordance with the methods of allocation provided herein, is within the Village.”

SECTION 2: This Ordinance shall be effective as of the date provided for at Section 731.31 of the Revised Code.
